UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

Securities Investor Protection Corporation,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities
LLC,

Defendant.

Bankruptcy Case No. 08-01789 (BRL)

SIPA Liquidation

OBJECTION TO TRUSTEE'S DETERMINATION OF CLAIM

John A. Jones Revocable Living Trust ("Claimant") hereby objects to the denial of claim in the Trustee's Determination of Claim dated December 8, 2009,¹ and states as follows:

1. On September 1, 2008 Claimant made an initial investment of $250,000.00 into Rye Select Broad Market Prime Fund, L.P. (the "Rye Fund"). As of October 31, 2008, the statement from the Rye Fund valued the investment at $252,150.79.

2. All of the funds which Claimant invested in the Rye Fund were invested in Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC ("BLMIS").

3. On or about December 11, 2008, the above-captioned liquidation proceeding was commenced against BLMIS, pursuant to the Securities Investor Protection Act ("SIPA"), 15 U.S.C. § 78aaa et seq.

4. On or about December 15, 2008, jurisdiction of this matter was transferred to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, and Irving Picard was appointed as Trustee.

5. Pursuant to the SIPA, Trustee Picard was directed to oversee the liquidation of the assets of BLMIS and to process all claims against Defendant BLMIS, and the Debtor Bernard L. Madoff. See 15 U.S.C. § 78fff-1(a).

6. By order of this Court dated December 23, 2008, the Trustee was directed to disseminate notice and claim forms to all former BLMIS customers setting forth claim-filing deadlines. See Order entered at Dkt. No. 12. The Order directed the Trustee to "notify such claimant by mail of his determination that the claim is disallowed, in whole or in part, and the reason therefore . . ."

7. In February 2009, prior to the claims filing deadline, Claimant duly filed a customer claim with the Trustee in the amount of $250,000.00. This claim has apparently been designated as Claim No. 006397.

8. By Notice of Trustee's Determination of Claim dated December 8, 2009, the Trustee notified Claimant that its claim had been denied on the following basis:

Based on a review of available books and records of BLMIS by the Trustee's staff, you did not have an account with BLMIS. Because you did not have an account, you are not a customer of BLMIS under SIPA as that term is defined at 15 U.S.C. § 78lll(2). Accordingly, your Claim for securities and/or a credit balance is DENIED.

9. By this Notice of Objection, Claimant does hereby formally object to the determination by the Trustee.

10. First Objection: The Trustee's determination fails to comply with the December 23, 2008 Order of the Court which directed the Trustee to satisfy customer's claims in accordance with the Debtor's books and records or which "are otherwise established to the satisfaction of the Trustee." See Dkt. No. 12 at 5. The Claimant's claim included proper documentation of the amount owed to Claimant. Accordingly, the claim should be allowed in full.

11. Second Objection: Contrary to the determination of the Trustee, Claimant is a "customer" as provided for by the Securities Investor Protection Act. As such, it is entitled to receive SIPC insurance. Section 7811(2) of the SIPA defines "customer" as "any person who has deposited cash with the debtor for the purpose of purchasing securities."² Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Secs. LLC, 401 B.R. 629, 635 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009) ("the mere act of entrusting . . . cash to the debtor for the purpose of effecting securities transactions . . . triggers customer status . . .") (alterations in original)

² The statute provides that:

The term "customer" of a debtor means any person (including any person with whom the debtor deals as principal or agent) who has a claim on account of securities received, acquired, or held by the debtor in the ordinary course of its business as a broker or dealer from or for the securities accounts of such person for safekeeping, with a view to sale, to cover consummated sales, pursuant to purchases, as collateral security, or for purposes of effecting transfer. The term "customer" includes any person who has a claim against the debtor arising out of sales or conversions of such securities, and any person who has deposited cash with the debtor for the purpose of purchasing securities, . . .

15 U.S.C. § 7811(2).

(citations omitted). Apparently, the Trustee has taken the position that the fact that Claimant deposited funds with BLMIS indirectly is fatal to its claim as a “customer” under SIPA. This position is incorrect.

12. Under SIPA, the term “customer” is a term of art, and does not have its ordinary and customary meaning. Arford v. Miller, 239 B.R. 698, 701 (S.D.N.Y. 1999), aff’d sub nom. In re Stratton Oakmont, 210 F.3d 420 (2d Cir. 2000) (citations omitted). It is to be construed within the context of the definitional section of SIPA, and as interpreted by the courts.

13. The statute does not require that one have a direct relationship with the subject broker to be considered a “customer” under SIPA. All the plain language of the statute requires is that (a) the claim against the debtor arose out of sales or conversion of securities, and (b) that the customer made deposits with the fiduciary of cash or securities. See 15 U.S.C. § 7811(2). The legislative history of SIPA supports this interpretation.

14. SIPA was enacted by Congress as remedial legislation to be liberally construed to effect the purpose of protecting the investments of customers of broker-dealers and investment advisers. See In re First State Securities Corp., 34 B.R. 492, 496 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 1983) (citing Tcherepnin v. Knight, 389 U.S. 332 (1967)). The fundamental purpose of SIPA was to protect the public in the event that the entities with whom they dealt with went bankrupt, or were otherwise unable to satisfy their customer agreements. See SEC v. S.J. Salmon & Co., Inc., 375 F. Supp. 867, 871 (S.D.N.Y. 1974) (“The principal purpose of the [Securities Investor Protection] Act was to protect investors against financial losses arising from the insolvency of their brokers.”) (citing H. Rep. No. 91-1613, at 1970 U.S. Code Cong. and Adm. News p. 5254 et seq.).

15. The statute does not mandate that the funds or securities received by the debtor were received “directly” by the customer. Had this been a requirement, Congress would have so required it. Indeed, Section 9 of SIPA covering advances by SIPC to the bankruptcy trustee states that:

no advance shall be made by SIPC to the trustee to pay or otherwise satisfy any net equity claim of any customer who is a broker or dealer or bank, other than to the extent that it shall be established to the satisfaction of the trustee, from the books and records of the debtor or from the books and records of a broker or dealer or bank, or otherwise, that the net equity claim of such broker or dealer or bank against the debtor arose out of transactions for customers of such broker or dealer or bank . . . , in which event each such customer of such broker or dealer or bank shall be deemed a separate customer of the debtor.

15 U.S.C. § 78fff-3(a)(5) (emphasis added).

16. Whether a claimant is a “customer” does not depend upon to whom he or she or it “handed her cash or made her check payable, or even where the funds were initially deposited.” In re Old Naples Sec., Inc., 223 F.3d 1296, 1302 (11th Cir. 2000). “Instead, the question is whether there was ‘actual receipt, acquisition or possession of the property of a claimant by the brokerage firm under liquidation.’” Id. (citing In re Stalvey & Assoc., Inc., 750 F.2d 464, 469 (5th Cir. 1985) (quoting SEC v. Kenneth Bove & Co., 378 F. Supp. 697, 700 (S.D.N.Y. 1974))). Here, Claimant can show that there was “actual receipt, acquisition or possession” of its property by the Debtor.

17. As this cause of action arose in New York, and New York law is applicable, Claimant is entitled to interest on all of the funds deposited with BLMIS at the statutory rate. New York CPLR § 5004, New York General Oblig. L. § 5-501 et seq. Furthermore, as the actions by BLMIS arose out of conversion and fraud, Claimant is entitled to pre-judgment interest. New York CPLR § 5001(a). See also Singapore Recycle Centre Pte Ltd. v. Kad Int'l, 2009 WL 2424333 at *20 (E.D.N.Y. 2009).

18. Claimant reserves all rights under Rule 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, including, but not limited to, all rights of discovery.

19. Claimant reserves the right to amend, alter, revise, or supplement this Objection; any failure to object on a particular procedural or substantive ground shall not be deemed a waiver of any such rights, all of which are hereby reserved.

20. In the event that the Court does not allow Claimant's claim as a "customer" claim, it should nevertheless allow Claimant's claim as a general unsecured creditor claim.

RELIEF REQUESTED

21. For the reasons set forth herein, the Court should find Claimant is a "customer" within the definition of 15 U.S.C. § 7811(2).

22. For the reasons set forth herein, the Court should overrule the Trustee's determination and find that Claimant should have its claims allowed in full to the extent covered by SIPC.

23. In the event that the Court does not allow Claimant's claim as a customer claim, it should nevertheless allow the claim as a general unsecured creditor claim.

24. For the reasons set forth herein, the Court should direct the SIPC to issue immediate payment to Claimant in the amount of $250,000.00, plus interest from the date of claim.

25. To the extent applicable, Claimant joins the in the objections of those other claimants similarly situated, and request such further relief as this Court shall deem fair and equitable.

RE: SIPC Claim Package for Rye Select Broad Market Prime Fund,
LP (the "Fund")

Dear Investor:

As previously communicated, Mount Yale has been following the Madoff fraud situation closely. One of the possible strategies to recover some portion of your assets that were invested in the Fund is for you to file a Customer Claim Form with SIPC and the Trustee for Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC ("Madoff"). While the laws that currently govern SIPC coverage do not appear to apply to investors that had an investment interest in a feeder fund invested with Madoff, we are encouraging you to complete this process in the event that the laws are determined by the Trustee to apply or are changed to apply to your situation.

We have provided as much information on the Customer Claim form as our records allow. In the event the attached Customer Claim form is not completed accurately, we are also providing a blank copy so you may complete it and substitute it in lieu of the Customer Claim form that is attached.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Review the information that we are providing very carefully. While we believe it is correct, it is your sole responsibility to verify its accuracy.
2. The completed package of information must be delivered to the Madoff Trustee by March 4, 2009. We suggest you deliver it sooner. A pre-paid and pre-addressed FedEx envelope is provided for your convenience. The package label will become obsolete on March 12, 2009. If for some reason you mail the package on or after this date you will need to provide your own mailing envelope.

3. You need to answer questions 4, 5, 6 and 9 on page 3 by indicating "Yes" or "No".
4. The last statement of value ($252150.79) that was issued from the Fund was dated 10/31/2008. We are enclosing Mount Yale's copy of your statement as an example. Please note however that Mount Yale's copy is addressed to Mount Yale and references your account name. Since the address on Mount Yale's copy is different than your address, we strongly recommend that you include a copy of the statement addressed and sent directly to you by the Fund instead of Mount Yale's copy to help the Trustee identify you as the investor. If you are unable to locate that specific statement, you can contact Tremont/Rye to request copies of your statements at 212-815-4090 or the Tremont Rye hotline at 914-925-1725.
5. We are also enclosing Mount Yale's copies of 1) Confirmation of Cash Receipt, 2) Confirmation of Intent and 3) Trade Confirmation. Please note that the attached copies are also addressed to Mount Yale and references your account number (not name). Since the address on Mount Yale's copy is different than your address, we strongly recommend that you include a copy of the statement addressed and sent directly to you by the Fund instead of Mount Yale's copy to help the Trustee identify you as the investor. If you are unable to locate that specific statement, you can contact Tremont/Rye to request copies of your statements at 212-815-4090 or the Tremont Rye hotline at 914-925-1725.
6. We suggest that you review this material with your financial advisor before sending it to the Trustee.

7. The list of materials that should constitute a full package of material to be delivered to the Trustee includes the following:

- a. Completed Customer Claim form that you review and approve to be correct (see attached)
- b. Addendum A to the Customer Claim form (see attached)
- c. A copy of the last statement received from the Fund that was dated 10/31/2008. (see attached)
- d. Three trade confirmations from Rye: 1) Confirmation of Cash Receipt, 2) Confirmation of Intent and 3) Trade Confirmation.
- e. A copy of the December 19, 2008 letter from Rye that suspended i) the determination of NAV calculations, ii) redemptions from the Fund and iii) payment of withdrawal proceeds.
- f. A copy of the letter from Rye dated January 14, 2009 that assigns a value of $0 to your investment.

If you should have any questions, please contact your financial advisor or Marissa Wells at (303) 382-2860.

RE: The Attached Customer Claim Form for John A. Jones Revocable Living Trust

Customer is a limited partner investor in Rye Select Broad Market Prime Fund, LP, a Delaware Limited Partnership (the "Rye Fund") for which Tremont Partners, Inc. (operating through its Rye Investment Management division) serves as sole general partner. Customer has been advised that the sole portfolio manager of the Rye Fund was Broker, and all brokerage and trading activity of the Rye Fund was conducted through a brokerage account with Broker.

Customer is filing this customer claim in an unknown amount and for unknown securities because Customer cannot identify the exact nature of such securities or the value of such securities at this time based on the information available to it. Customer's claim for securities as of December 11, 2008 consists of Customer's undivided proportionate share of the Rye Fund's cash and securities held by Broker as of such date, the details of which are not available to Customer at this time.

Attached hereto are the following documents evidencing Customer's investment and limited partnership interest in the Rye Fund as of December 11, 2008:

- 1) Confirmation of Customer's original investment ($250000) was received by the Rye Fund on 8/31/2008 and the original investment (trade date) was made on 9/1/2008.
- 2) A statement of Customer's limited partnership interest in the Rye Fund as of 10/31/2008 (the latest statement provided by the Rye Fund to its limited partner investors) which was $ 252150.79 ;
- 3) A copy of the December 19, 2008 letter from Rye that suspended i) the determination of NAV calculations, ii) redemptions from the Fund and iii) payment of withdrawal proceeds;
- 4) A copy of the letter from Rye dated January 14, 2009 that assigns a value of $0 to your investment;
- 5) Three trade confirmations from Rye: 1) Confirmation of Cash Receipt, 2) Confirmation of Intent and 3) Trade Confirmation.

PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Date: January 14, 2009

RE: Valuation for November 30, 2008

Rye Select Broad Market Fund, LP
Rye Select Broad Market Prime Fund, LP
Rye Select Broad Market XL Fund, LP
Rye Select Broad Market Insurance Fund, L.P.
(the "Funds")

Dear Investor,

Tremont Partners, Inc. ("Tremont"), as the General Partner for the Funds has taken steps to value the Funds' assets to reflect the impact of the fraudulent activities of Mr. Bernard L. Madoff and his brokerage firm, Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities L.L.C. ("Madoff Securities").

The arrest of Mr. Madoff by U.S. federal law enforcement on charges of securities fraud on December 11, 2008, prompted Tremont to re-value the Funds effective November 30, 2008.

Based on the reported admissions of Mr. Madoff contained in the complaint filed against him by the United States of America and ensuing commentary by governmental officials, Tremont has concluded that the Funds have lost substantially all of their value. Tremont views the alleged 'ponzi scheme' as an outright theft of the Funds' assets. Furthermore, based on currently available information, it appears that there is no prospect for meaningful recovery of those assets.

Given these facts, Tremont will be calculating the November 30, 2008 net asset values for the Funds to reflect a total loss of assets which were held at Madoff Securities. The Funds will maintain reserves to assist in the recovery process, which we believe will take years. Redemptions will remain suspended until further notice.

We appreciate your continued patience during this time. If you have any questions or inquiries, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Rye Investment Management

Re: Rye Select Broad Market Prime Fund, L.P. (the "Partnership")

Dear Limited Partner:

We are writing to inform you of the measures that Tremont Partners, Inc. (the "General Partner") is taking as a result of the apparent fraud perpetrated on the Partnership by Bernard L. Madoff and his firm, Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities, LLC ("BLMIS"). On Tuesday, December 16, 2008, the SEC issued Release 2008-297, by Commissioner Cox, that restated the emergency actions being taken by the SEC and indicated that it had learned in reviewing records of Madoff that "those records are increasingly exposing the complicated steps that Mr. Madoff took to deceive investors, the public and regulators," and that he maintained "several sets of books and records and false documents, and provided false information involving his advisory activities to investors and regulators." The full text of the release appears at www.sec.gov. The apparent fraud is massive.

As you know, all or substantially all of the Partnership's portfolio had exposure to BLMIS and/or one or more of its affiliates or agents. All capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein shall have their respective meanings set forth in the Partnership's Amended and Restated Limited Partnership Agreement dated as of March 1, 2008 (the "Partnership Agreement").

The General Partner has determined, pursuant to the Partnership Agreement, that it is the best interests of the Partnership as a whole to declare a temporary suspension of (i) the determination of the Net Asset Value of the Partnership, (ii) withdrawals from the Partnership for those requests submitted for December 31, 2008 and thereafter and (iii) payment of withdrawal proceeds, due to the uncertainty associated with prior Net Asset Value calculations, which remain unpaid as of this date.

Each of the above suspensions will be effective as of December 19, 2008 and will remain in effect until such time as the General Partner determines it is in the best interests of the Partnership to lift such suspension.

We will update you of any new developments in connection with the above matters. We appreciate your patience during this time and wish to assure you that we are consulting with the Partnership's counsel and reviewing all options available to the Partnership.

Sincerely,

TREMONT PARTNERS, INC., General Partner

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S DETERMINATION OF CLAIM

December 8, 2009

JOHN A. JONES REVOCABLE LIVING TRUST
2308 RAMBLING ROAD
JOHNSON CITY, TN 37604

Dear JOHN A. JONES REVOCABLE LIVING TRUST:

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

The liquidation of the business of BERNARD L. MADOFF INVESTMENT SECURITIES LLC ("BLMIS") is being conducted by Irving H. Picard, Trustee under the Securities Investor Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 78aaa et seq. ("SIPA"), pursuant to an order entered on December 15, 2008 by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

The Trustee has made the following determination regarding your claim designated as Claim No. 006397:

Based on a review of available books and records of BLMIS by the Trustee's staff, you did not have an account with BLMIS. Because you did not have an account, you are not a customer of BLMIS under SIPA as that term is defined at 15 U.S.C. § 78fff (2). Accordingly, your Claim for securities and/or a credit balance is DENIED.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: If you disagree with this determination and desire a hearing before Bankruptcy Judge Burton R. Lifland, you MUST file your written opposition, setting forth the grounds for your disagreement, referencing Bankruptcy Case No. 08-1789 (BRL) and attaching copies of any documents in support of your position, with the United States Bankruptcy Court and the Trustee within THIRTY DAYS after December 8, 2009, the date on which the Trustee mailed this notice.

¹ Section 78fff(7)(B) of SIPA states that the filing date is "the date on which an application for a protective decree is filed under 78eee(a)(3)," except where the debtor is the subject of a proceeding pending before a United States court "in which a receiver, trustee, or liquidator for such debtor has been appointed and such proceeding was commenced before the date on which such application was filed, the term 'filing date' means the date on which such proceeding was commenced." Section 78fff(7)(B). Thus, even though the Application for a protective decree was filed on December 15, 2008, the Filing Date in this action is on December 11, 2008.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE: If you do not properly and timely file a written opposition, the Trustee's determination with respect to your claim will be deemed confirmed by the Court and binding on you.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE: If you properly and timely file a written opposition, a hearing date for this controversy will be obtained by the Trustee and you will be notified of that hearing date. Your failure to appear personally or through counsel at such hearing will result in the Trustee's determination with respect to your claim being confirmed by the Court and binding on you.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE: You must mail your opposition, if any, in accordance with the above procedure, to each of the following addresses:

Clerk of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York
One Bowling Green
New York, New York 10004

and
